

End of Life Information for Products Powered by Shavlik

This document provides information about the End of Life policy for legacy Shavlik products and VMware branded versions of the same product lines (now part of the Ivanti family). The Ivanti Product Support Policy applies to the legacy products released under the Shavlik and VMware brand names. The type of support for a given product release is defined below:

Technical Support	Respond to inquiries via phone, email and forum. Provided by Ivanti's Product Support Team and related technical assistance websites.
XML Updates	Updates of XML data files. Provided on the Ivanti website. Enables assessment and remediation functions for the selected product.
Code Correction	Provided for defects and critical issues.

End of Life Dates

All dates presented in this document are in the ISO 8601 format. This format uses a numerical date system as follows: YYYY-MM-DD, where YYYY is the year, MM the month and DD the day.

The information contained herein is believed to be accurate as of the date of publication, but updates and revisions may be posted periodically and without notice.
